Handball County Champions.

Congratulations to our Handball team and their coaches on their recent win in the county handball final.

See our website/Facebook page for photos.

Lost and Found

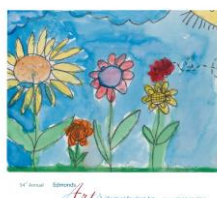

We have an official lost and found press at the front building of the school beside Secretary's office. Please remind your son if he is missing a jumper, jacket etc to check the Lost and Found press.

We will empty the lost and found press at the end of each month and give the clothes to charity.

The Oranmore Arts Festival returns for its second year! Running from May 16-19th, it will deliver a diverse programme of live music, theatre, literature, fine art, and workshops. Save the date! Many of the events are geared toward families with something for everyone.

The all-volunteer festival committee is holding a fundraising Table Quiz this Thursday evening at 8.30pm, upstairs at the Porterhouse. Please come along and give your support to this community-based festival. If you're interested in volunteering or getting involved in the festival, there will be an information session just before the table quiz, at 7.30pm. Hope to see you there.

Setanta Book Club

Tomorrow is the final day to order books.

Please have money and book requests sent to the office by tomorrow if you want to order a book.

We say goodbye to our teachers Ms. Louise Mulcahy, Ms. Rachel Hanniffy and Mr Ed Fitzgerald. Thank you all very much for your positive contribution to Scoil Íosaif Naofa over the last few months.

We welcome back Ms Devlin, Ms Coen and Ms Lavelle who will be returning to us after the Easter Break.

Thank you to the Parents Association of both Scoil Íosaif Naofa and Scoil Mhuire who organised the Annual Table Quiz between both schools last Thursday and the previous Thursday. Thanks to all who attended and helped on the night. Of course we were very proud of our boys here in Scoil Íosaif Naofa winning both the Junior and Senior quiz.

A reminder that all of our newsletters are available to view on the school website. Keep up to date with all that happens in our school via our website and facebook page.
